

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of media corruption.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get censorship. It is important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive, objective news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules. They show why the license renewal process needs to be reformed. Thank you.
